REGISTER UNDERWAY FOR LOCALLY-HELD SUFFOLK COUNTY FALL PREVENTION PROGRAMS

(HUNTINGTON STATION, NY... September 8, 2015) – Suffolk County Legislator Lou D'Amaro (D-Huntington Station) would like to inform residents that County Executive Steve Bellone and Commissioner of Health Services Dr. James Tomarken are offering the County's innovative "Falls Prevention Program" at convenient Western Suffolk locations this Fall. The free workshops aim to help mature adults reduce the risks of falls and improve their quality of life.

Stepping On*

"Stepping On" is a seven-week model program that focuses on improving balance and strength, home and community safety, vision, safe footwear and medication review. According to the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC), the program has proven to reduce falls for participants by 31 percent.

Greenlawn

Paumanack Village, 650 Paumanack Village Drive, Greenlawn

Mondays, September 28 and October 5, 14, 19, 26 and November 2 and 9, 2015; classes run from 1 pm to 3 pm.

To register, contact Nelly Zoeller at (631) 853-6472

Please be aware: Registration is currently underway, but the number of openings for "Stepping On" is limited and will be filled on a first-come, first-served basis.*

“According to The National Council on Aging, every 15 seconds a senior citizen is treated in a hospital emergency room for a fall-related accident,” said Legislator D’Amaro. “Through awareness and increased participation in fall prevention programs, we hope to be able to cut down on the frequency and severity of these incidents. I hope many people will enroll either themselves or their loved ones in these programs.”
